

Focusing on You: Brain Tumors at Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center

New Tools Make Brain Surgery More Precise

New advancements in brain surgery have made the diagnosis and removal of brain tumors more precise. Dr. Ricardo Komotar and Dr. Michael Ivan, neurosurgeons at Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer

Center, discuss these new tools, which include the ROSA robot and 5-ALA fluorescence. Click here for the full story.

