Focusing on You: Hypertension Center Focuses on Heart Disease Prevention

Patients evaluated based on four pillars of cardiovascular risk.

Maria Delgado-Lelievre, M.D., the Director of the Comprehensive Hypertension Center at the University of Miami Health System, explains how prevalent hypertension is in the United States and how the center focuses on four pillars of the condition to provide patients personalized treatment by identifying their cardiovascular risk.
Content Type Video